

STOOL PIGEONS FIGHT AND THE FEATHERS FLY

Feathers from two stool pigeons flew through the air at 22d street and Cottage Grove avenue, when Joseph Thome, suspended member of the morals squad, and Wolf Logan, who helped the Rev. Elmer L. Williams trap a woman, met last night.

Logan is supposed to have alluded lightly to the night Thome was supposed to have been hiding under the bed during a raid on a flat at 8 W. 22d street.

Thome resented Logan's remarks and the fight started. Thome was better than Logan. And the latter, stool-pigeonlike, turned and ran. A copper grabbed Thome and he was taken to the station.

BITS OF NEWS

Peter Casell, 18, 1427 S. Jefferson st., attacked by two unknown men. Skull fractured by brick.

Benj. Coljar, 20, 1376 S. Racine av., fell going after street car. Hurt.

George Harris, 1415 Washburne av., and Abe Shapiro, 2422 Milton av., arrested in Boston Store. Shoplifting charge.

Ray Casper, 14, 4215 Ravenswood av., drowned in lake.

Stranger known as "Shorty" Graham worked 3 saloonkeepers in Gary by buying saloon and getting change on $1,000 draft.

Mrs. Chas. O. Sethness appointed school trustee. Will take husband's place. Husband ousted by mayor.

Herman Schmitz, court clerk indicted for bribery, wants bond lowered. Motion filed to reduce $10,000 bail.

"I am the real murderer of Tressie Hollander. I kill myself today," says anonymous note sent to Petras judge.

Louis Knabe liked Enneline Hueber's eyes. Landed in court. Paroled on promise to stay home with wife.

Beat carpets on the wrong side first, turn and beat on right side.

NEW PHOTO OF FAMOUS BEAUTY

Princess
Radziwiell

A new photograph of Princess Radziwiell, the former Dorothy Deacon, who was once the far-famed beauty of Boston. The princess is as popular in her circle now as she was when she reigned in Boston, no affair being considered a success without her presence.

HAS EARNED IT

John Organ has been running the Salem Monitor 41 years and celebrated the event recently by taking an elaborate one-course dinner of hog jowl and greens.—Sycamore (Mo.) Citizen.